

Tufts Health Plan in cooperation with CMSNE invite you to attend an educational program
This program will offer 1.25 CCM Ethics Credits towards renewal.

Thursday, April 25, 2019 – 1:00 – 2:45 PM
Tufts Health Plan, 705 Mt Auburn St., Watertown, MA 02472

Incorporating Professional Ethics into the New Age of Care Collaboration

Presented by:

Emily Navetta, MPH, Senior Account Manager, Caregiver Homes

This session will explore methods for case managers to target which community based services will best serve their patients' identified needs. Case managers will gain the ability to conceptualize and develop comprehensive care plans which integrate traditional and community based delivery models to address the overall health of their patient, including social determinants of health.

Upon completion of this presentation participants will be able to:

- Identify appropriate service providers for specific needs and how to connect with social service providers.
- Describe the importance of collaboration among health care providers, social service providers and financial resources.
- Discuss the impact of addressing social determinants of health on individual health status.
- Utilize the principles of respect of patient rights and inherent dignity, as well as objectivity as outlined in CCMC's Code of Professional Conduct when working through the challenges of helping patients and families make healthcare decisions.

Prior registration and pre-payment is required by members and non-members to assure appropriate seating, snack, course materials and 1.25 RN, SW and CCM credit will be provided.
