Lahey Hospital & Medical Center, Burlington, MA – Alumni Auditorium

Domestic and Sexual Abuse: What Healthcare Providers Need to Know A DPH-Approved Ch260 Compliance Training

Presented by:

Erin C. Miller, MPS, MDV, CTSS, CASAC-T

Manager, Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault Program, Newton-Wellesley Hospital

This session will discuss ethical dilemmas involving Domestic & Sexual Abuse encountered in Case Management practice. The CCMC Code of Professional Conduct will be referenced in regards to assessment, reporting and documentations of these situations. Earn 3 ethics credits towards CCM renewal. This is a repeat of CMSNE's 10/9/18 educational program, if previously attended no further credits will be awarded.

Upon completion of this presentation, attendees will be able to:

- Cite the definition and dynamics of Domestic Violence (DV)
- Discuss the role of healthcare professionals in the education, assessment, responding and documenting of DV
- Define Sexual Violence and Understanding the Emergency Response
- Explain the impact of children's exposure to abuse.
- Define the health consequences of lifetime exposures to violence and abuse as well as the principles of Trauma Informed Care
- Utilize the principles of respect of patient rights and inherent dignity, as well as objectivity as outlined in CCMC's Code of Professional Conduct when assessing, reporting and documenting the often difficult topics of physical, mental and sexual abuse with clients and families you serve.

Prior registration and pre-payment is required by members and non-members to assure appropriate seating, snack, course materials and 3 RN, SW and CCM Ethics hours will be provided. Registration is $35 CMSNE members and $50 for non-members, $25 Lahey employees.
